FOREWORD

Good citizenship, scholarship, sportsmanship, co-operation, loyalty, charity, and courtesy are among the many virtues which the organizations of our school stress.

Because they are so diversified in purposes and activities, there is at least one of which each student should be an eager, active, secure member. There is a club or organization for everyone.

To these character builders which strive for individual expression, to these educators which elaborate on the knowledge already gained in regular classes, to these clubs and organizations our Powder Horn is dedicated.

The Three Seasons

George Rogers Clark

On the next page are three pictures of George Rogers Clark School depicting the three seasons during which the school is in session. The top one shows a fall scene; the middle one, winter; and the bottom, spring.

In the fall the students, fresh from a summer's vacation, start the long journey which they must make through the year. As winter sets in, they are in the full swing of activities; and by spring, they put the finishing touches to their assignments.

No matter what season it is at Clark, though, students may be found working hard on their school work and extra-curricular activities.

Classes

With an emphasis upon world peace and the building of individual character, all nations are striving to better world conditions. Each member of the various classes at Clark endeavors to gain this desire by accumulating knowledge to establish himself in a just society. Through co-operation and hard work in class events, each student realizes that many goals which are bigger and better than his own may be attained for the benefit of all.

Our Principal

PRINCIPAL
Mr. R. B. Miller

For fifteen years Principal R. B. Miller has been guiding George Rogers Clark High School past numerous difficulties. Busy as he is in administrating to the needs of the school, Mr. Miller, known as "prince-of-a-pal," is always ready to help and encourage students by a cheerful smile, sound advice, and pleasant words.

Miss Pearl Yocham and Mr. Paul Wilkinson share the office of guidance counselors at Clark in directing the curriculum and activities of the students.

The Board of School Trustees, composed of five members elected for a four year term, is in charge of operating the entire Hammond Public School System. Under the leadership of Superintendent Lee L. Caldwell, the present board consists of Mr. Walter Thornton, president; Mr. Charles N. Scott, secretary; Mr. Columbus Smith, treasurer; Dr. Henry Eggers and Mr. Archie Spoerner, members-at-large; and Mr. Gerald A. Gillett, attorney.

Their loyalty to Clark, friendliness, efficiency, and willingness to help at all times provide a cheerful atmosphere in the school office, where much business is transacted during the entire day.

Besides carrying on their regular class work teachers have often helped students find their way through perplexing problems and difficulties. For this reason the faculty members at Clark are not just teachers, but friends to the students. In addition to this many of the teachers act as sponsors for the numerous clubs in school.

Combining a love of teaching with a fine sense of humor and a sincere interest in the physical and mental health of each student, our teachers have done their part in keeping the George Rogers Clark Creed—

"To the best of our ability we shall endeavor to faithfully serve our school.

Honor and uphold its name.

Strive for high scholarship, citizenship, and sportsmanship."

F a c u l t y

Although our teachers could have left Clark for higher paying jobs in industry, many of them faithfully remained in school.

Several instructors were added to the GRC faculty this year. Included among them were Mr. Emerson Aldrich, mathematics teacher and assistant football and basketball coach; Miss Dorothy Clark and Miss Harriette Shoemaker, English instructors; Mrs. Rebekah Eddy, Latin teacher; Miss Leota Kenzie, physical education advisor; and Mrs. Shirley Wilson, nurse.

Because of the resignation of Mr. Max W. Beaty, former Publications Director, Mrs. Doris Fuller was obtained as journalism instructor.

As their social activities the teachers held their annual banquet at Christmas and their spring picnic in May.

Seniors of 1947

In the fall of 1943 GRC welcomed the freshman, the Class of '47. Under the guidance of Miss Ida Iversen, the students chose Jim Eggers, president; Bob Tallman, vice-president; Sally Roberts, secretary; and Arthur Powell, treasurer.

The "Freshies" made known their enthusiasm and perseverance by topping the magazine subscription drive.

The first social function of the class was a Freshman mixer. Their initial school dance, "The Victory Stamp," followed.

Under the leadership of President Paul Voreacos, Vice-President Dave Roberts, Secretary Donna Stumph, and Treasurer Mack Foreman, the sophomores prepared for their Thanksgiving dance, "The Cranberry Crawl."

The class abandoned tradition to select its motto, flower, and colors in the sophomore year. The class history was recorded as it was made.

1946

As the junior year became a reality, the class elected Dave Roberts, president; Art Gasenica, vice-president; Mary Jane Quinn, secretary; and Joe Dolak, treasurer.

Following the "Valentine Vamp," the class dance, the junior play, a comedy named "Help Yourself," became another noteworthy success.

Breaking tradition, the class held the prom, "Moonbeam Mist," at Madura's Danceland, June 7.

Feeling that once again capable officers would help them accept the responsibility of leadership, the Senior Class named Ted Wiley, president; Mack Foreman, vice-president; Donna Faye Stumph, secretary; and Arthur Powell, treasurer.

The class presented its Christmas dance, "Winter Wonderland," without an orchestra.

"Double Door," a mystery drama, proved a hit.

Twins Sally and Dave Roberts were the DAR winners.

For the first time in GRC history co-valedictorians were named. They were Ted Wiley and Bill Vobach.

And so as another graduating class passes through the portals of George Rogers Clark, it will proceed into the hazy expectations of the future, but the Class of '47 has left its indelible mark in the history of its Alma Mater.

THE JUNIOR PROM

"Moonbeam Mist," the name of the prom sponsored by the Class of 1947, was held Friday, June 6, 1946, at Madura's Danceland for the first time in the history of the school.

Approximately one hundred and forty couples danced from 9 until 12 p.m. to the music of Wally Humphries and his orchestra and enjoyed a very wonderful evening at this formal social dance.

An over-all picture of couples dancing at last year's prom presents scene of gaily for those who attended.

The Junior and Senior Class presidents and their prom dates are Al Kwiatowski, Hazel Andersen, Dave Roberts, and Janie Quinn.

SSING CLARK CLASSES

Activities

Clark's well balanced school program provides numerous clubs and organizations for its students. These make up the main part of the extra-curricular activities at G R C. The students are encouraged to take part in some club, for it is the active person who gets ahead. Close relationship, cooperation, and responsibility are gained by participation in these clubs. It is through active membership that the students become true Pioneers of Clark.

Y-TEENS

The Y-Teens, one of the largest organizations in the school formerly known as the Girl Reserves, seeks to uphold its members to the main purpose of the club—Service.

Under the new point system, the girls are required to render some service to make themselves worthy of membership in this nationwide organization. Ten members, seven seniors and three juniors, earned Y-Teen pins.

A few of the club's services included collecting old clothes for the needy, sending gifts to the orphans at Christmas, donating appropriations for the reconstruction of the YWCA in war-torn countries, and presenting the annual Easter assembly, a movie entitled "Keys of the Kingdom."

An impressive candlelight service for the initiation of new members was one of the highlights of the club's social activities. Other social events consisted of an annual fall picnic, Hi-Y-

Y-Teen party, and an after-game dance. For the first time night meetings were held monthly.

During the month of March the officers and several members of the club attended the Northern Indiana Y-Teen Conference at Elkhart, Indiana, which was sponsored by the Young Women's Christian Association. The girls acquired various ideas which proved helpful in planning the coming year's program.

Miss Margaret Ide, sponsor, and Miss Leah Burosh, vice-president; Jo Ann Runick, secretary; Sally Lou Creswell, treasurer; Mary Linda Burnett, program chairman; and Roma Atchison, social chairman.

Leading the members in their services this year were Sally Roberts, president; Madge Burosh, vice-president; Jo Ann Runick, secretary; Sally Lou Creswell, treasurer; Mary Linda Burnett, program chairman; and Roma Atchison, social chairman.

New officers were chosen to head the group for the next year in the early part of March, and they were installed at the April noon luncheon.

Dorothy Adams, Eugenia Voreacos, Donna Ralph, Roma Atchison, Lillian Gasenica, and Bernadine Dolak were those chosen to the respective offices of president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and members-at-large.

Senior members of the club attended a tea given by the intralclub council in the Hammond YWCA in May. All schools of the Calumet District were invited and they participated in the entertainment.

The intra-club council of Hamond, which meets monthly, is made up of representatives of every regional school, and it is organized for the purpose of guiding and uniting the Y-Teens of the city.

Bernadine Dolak was chosen as the Clark Y-Teen representative to attend a state conference this summer. This affair is held at Camp Mack in Warsaw, Indiana.

FORUM CLUB

At the beginning of the year all juniors and seniors were invited to become members of the Forum Club for the purpose of discussing modern, social, and economic problems and facing the true ideals of democracy.

With Mr. Arthur Erickson as sponsor, the program committee presented documentary films and guest speakers from many professions.

The officers for the year were Joe Rueff, president; Ted Wiley, vice-president, who acted as program chairman; Dolores Malloy, secretary; and Elaine Osborne, treasurer.

Among the important speakers were Miss Olga Schubkegel, who spoke on "The Relationship of Art to Everyday Life;" four students from the University of Chicago's round table discussion groups, who presented a program giving the effects of strikes upon the public; Mr. Charles Davis, manager of the Northern Indiana Social Security Board, whose speech was entitled "Why Social Security and What It Means to You;" and Dr. Mary Gorton, psychiatrist.

Their social contributions to the school and money-making projects consisted of several dances after both football and basketball games.

Hi-Y

"To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian living" is the theme and purpose of the Hi-Y Club with a platform of "Clean speech, clean sportsmanship, clean scholarship, and clean living" to help carry out this purpose.

Under the faculty sponsorship of Mr. Paul Wilkinson and Mr. Arthur Erickson and the leadership of David Roberts, president, the club began its activities in September with the annual "Get-Acquainted Dance".

Late in the year a group of the members traveled to Kokomo for the State Older Boys' Conference. The Hi-Y initiated two new Hi-Y Clubs in Lake County—one at Edison East Gary and the other at Crown Point.

In February the election of officers for the 1947-48 was held. Don Hannemann was chosen as the new president.

In the spring the Hi-Y sponsored two assemblies and the annual home-room basketball tournament. They also held a Father-and-Son Banquet for the first time which is intended to become an annual affair.

GIRLS ATHLETIC CLUB

The Girls' Athletic Club provides fun and exercise for any girl who becomes a member. During the school year the girls participate in many sports, including softball, soccer, basketball, and volleyball.

Every year awards are given for sportsmanship, athletic ability, and mental attitude. The girls receiving these awards are chosen by the members.

The 1946-47 GAC was under the direction of Miss Leota Kenzie, sponsor; Mary Stavros, president; Bernadine Dolak, vice-president; Irene Pivarnik, secretary; Pat Davidson, treasurer; and Veronica Vine, head-of-sports.

In May the club sponsored its annual girls' home-room volleyball tourney. This gave each girl in high school regardless of membership in the club an opportunity to participate in this intra-mural contest. Miss Margaret Ide's home room "221", captained by Dolores Paunicka emerged as the champions by defeating the Johnsons, 31 to 19.

They painted and hung the names and numbers of Clark and visiting basketball players in the gym as one of their service projects of the year. They also sold refreshments.

C Club

Composed of fifty-seven lettermen, the C Club, under the sponsorship of Coach Joe Franklin, became one of the most active organizations at Clark this year.

At the annual "In and Out" game, the outgoing seniors, captained by George Peters, won a 47-39 victory over next year's basketball candidates, headed by Ralph Porter.

For the first time in the history of Clark the C Club, guided by President Paul Voreacos, sold football programs to the sport fans at the Hammond High-Clark game. This netted the club a profit and gave the spectators greater enjoyment of the game.

Besides sponsoring the "Sweater Hop," its yearly dance, the C Club brought a movie called "The Gladiator" to Clark and held the annual Father-Son C Club Banquet at which honors were awarded to outstanding players.

An organization worthy of merit is Clark's Junior Red Cross, under the new leadership of Mrs. Shirley Wilson, a former Navy nurse.

"Cupid's Night," the first dance ever to be sponsored by the Junior Red Cross, was held St. Valentine's Day and proved to be a great success. Proceeds from the dance went into the Red Cross fund.

For its main project this year the club adopted a polio ward at St. Catherine's Hospital. Red Cross members made the children's holidays brighter by sending letters, nut cups and favors, and cookies.

In co-operation with the local branch of the National Red Cross Council, two afghans were completed and educational gift boxes were filled and sent to European countries in addition to many other services.

In addition to being president of Clark's Junior Red Cross, Nancy Graham holds the position of being president of the city-wide Junior Red Cross Council.

LIBRARY CLUB

The Library Club, led by President Theresa Pavlovic and Miss Harriet Lake, sponsor, is one of the more active organizations of the school. The girls are assigned to work in the library either before or after school, or at noon. Each girl also works during a study period and one seventh period a week.

The members' duties are many and varied, and their aim is to make the library a service center for the school. A few of their duties are checking books in and out, repairing them, and passing out attendance slips.

November 29 the Library Club held its first dance, "The Book Worm Ball." The money earned from this dance is being used to buy books, magazines, and other materials for the library.

The librarian, ten student helpers, and the principal of Morocco High School were the guests of Miss Lake and the members of the Library Club in April.

The reason for their visit was to see how the work of our library is done, since it has been voted one of the outstanding school libraries in Indiana.

PHYSICS CLUB

Amperes, volts, watts, cycles—These terms are a few of those which flow through the minds of Clark's physicists.

The Atom-mizers' Club, guided by Don Hannemann, president, and Mr. Paul Wilkinson, sponsor, first held organizational meetings at which they formed a constitution.

In the course of the year members went on a tour through the Museum of Science and Industry during which several principles of physics were demonstrated and explained.

The atom-mizers traveled to Youngstown Steel in the end of May. There they attended the open-house sponsored by the company and went on a sight-seeing tour of the mill. Included in the tour were displays of products manufactured there, views of the open-hearth and blast furnace, and other steps in the processing of steel.

Also playing a vital part in the club's activities was the showing of movies and slide films during the school term. These films had to do with subjects studied in the regular physics course. Along with the showing of movies, the club members gave individual reports on related subjects.

RADIO CLUB

The Kilocycle Club, also sponsored by Mr. Paul Wilkinson, got an early start this year by the quick organization of one of the largest groups of students interested in radio during the club's history. The framing of a constitution and the election of officers were its first accomplishments.

Under the guidance of Mike Martich, president, members spent the majority of the year learning Morse Code and listening to reports about radio given by themselves.

Arnold Studer and Dorothy James were elected vice-president and secretary-treasurer, respectively.

The principles of radio were further explained to them at Tuesday night meetings with the aid of various movies and new equipment for radio sets. Regular radio textbooks for individual study were also purchased.

Some of the members traveled to the Museum of Science and Industry one Saturday in May. During this trip they viewed the radar display which helped in the study of modern radio.

Money was earned during the year through dues and the collection of waste paper by various club members.

The Spanish Clubs led an active year learning the customs and language of our Latin-American neighbors in their monthly meetings, directed by Miss Hazel Holland.

Writing letters to Mexican students helped to strengthen the good-neighbor policy. An exhibit presenting dolls and maps of Spanish speaking countries was displayed during March. Miss Marie Greenwald, English teacher at Whiting High, talked and showed pictures of Guatemala.

They traveled to Indiana Harbor for a spanish movie and dinner.

LATIN CLUBS

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Rebekah Eddy, the Latin Clubs played an important part in the study of the language this past year, for it enabled the students to learn more about the Roman social life.

The first year Latin Club elected Andrew Jusko, president; Donna Kaban, vice-president; Mary Sinai, secretary; and Ella Rhee Kissen, treasurer. At the after-school meetings, the members played games which would advance their knowledge of Latin and gave reports about Roman life. They have had two parties, a Christmas and a Valentine party.

The second year Latin Club had a late start and did not organize until February. The officers were: John Krull, president; Jim Kessler, vice-president; Elaine Pavelchak, secretary, and Edward Svitek, treasurer.

They ended the year with a social gathering for both clubs.

As June rolled around to end this profitable year, each student could truthfully say, "Ego Latinam Linguam amavi."

Biology Club

Both Biology Clubs were established for a two-fold purpose. One was to enable students to further their study of biology and the other was to have its research be of service to the classes.

The members of Miss Elizabeth Lyle's club set up demonstrations which illustrated class work, gave reports, and did extra work for their own interest. They also collected material for slides for the projector.

Field trips were made in the vicinity to study the birds and trees of the region.

Meetings of the ABC (Amateur Biologists of Clark), under the leadership of Miss Veva McAtee, were held to discuss and report on topics concerning biology. Quizz programs, movies, and an occasional social evening added variety to the meetings.

Members made trips to the Board of Health, sewage disposal plant, the Field Museum, the Rosenwald Museum, and the Dunes State Park.

ART CLUB

The Art Club, under the direction of Miss Beatrice Northstrum, is made up of students interested in art work.

Many contests are entered by this group which is presided over by Lucille Murovich.

The members participate in making art projects during their meetings.

Ten of these amateur artists and Miss Northstrum traveled to Indianapolis to receive awards for outstanding work in a nation-wide contest.

Gold key winners included Martha Ann Whelan, non-objective design; Jeannine Hrapchak, abstract design; and Edward Janosov, pictorial design.

Frances Slater, Donald Widiger, Nancy Sutherland, Yolanda Pasztor, Joan Farley, Pay Dell Davis, and Alfred Blahunka received certificates of merit for their entries.

Jeannine Hrapchak also won honors in the Senior High division of the Poppy Day Poster Contest sponsored by the local American Legion.

Miss Northstrum attended the Western Art Convention in Cleveland in early May.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The distinct honor of being elected members of the National Honor Society was awarded to sixteen seniors and seven juniors this year, making the total membership twenty-nine, six present Senior members having been named to the NHS during their junior year.

A fine character, ability to lead, render service, and rank scholastically in the upper third of the classes are the qualifications necessary for membership in the National Honor Society, which is under the sponsorship of Miss Pearl Yocham. Fifteen per cent of the Senior Class and five per cent of the Junior Class may be selected each year for this added honor.

The standing members, chosen by the faculty in their junior year are: Donald Eddy, David Roberts, Chalmers Smith, William Vobach, and Ted Wiley.

Each year an outstanding senior boy noted for scholarship, athletic skill, and fine sportsmanship is the recipient of the Harold Zimmer Award, sponsored by this organization. This year David Roberts received the honor.

STUDENT COUNCIL

To give each student the chance of participating in the school government, the Student Council was organized. This year it was composed of forty-six home-room representatives, under the leadership of Principal R. B. Miller and President Chalmers Smith.

Through the co-operation of all Clark students the Council was able to administer and finish many projects.

A paper drive with Vice-president Art Gasenica as head was held during the first semester. The goal was 93,105 pounds of paper, and each student was asked to bring 115 pounds of paper.

Many safety measures for which the safety committee, led by Chairman Paul Voreacos, was responsible were added to the school.

Aquiring a cafeteria for the school was one of the main projects. A committee was organized to obtain money from the school board.

The student panel was given more power, and new amendments concerning it were added to the constitution of the Council.

The task of completing the annual was handled by the entire staff under the capable leadership of Arthur Powell, publications editor, upon the resignation of Mr. Max Beaty, previous sponsor.

According to Donna Stumph, subscription manager, five-hundred and eighty-three subscriptions to the year book were sold.

Edwin Wiley and his advertising staff set an all-time high in the selling of Powder Horn ads.

The literary staff included: Betty Pivarnik, special features editor; Sally Roberts and Jo Ann Runick, class editors; Lorraine Kilduski and Mary Jane Quinn, club and organization editors; Joe Rueff, sports editor; Joan Beckman and Dolores Malloy, typists; Barbara Kosior and Milan Manchak, artists; Dorothy Adams, Lois Bates Mary Linda Burnett, Theodora Economou, Donald and Robert Hannemann, Eugenia Voreacos, and Ann Wilkinson, feature writers.

NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE

Dynamically striving onward, the GRC orators finished the year by reaching a new high in individual speaking.

Under the guidance of Mr. Arthur Erickson, the students of interpretive speech were once again the recipients of several state honors in the National Forensic League State Contest.

Among the individual winners in the state contest were Don Eddy and Raleigh Vobach, first and second place, respectively, in extemporaneous speech; Ted Wiley and Bill Vobach, first and third place, respectively, in original oratory; Marilyn Smith, fourth place in dramatic reading; and Shelia Goldstein, fourth place in poetry.

Ted Wiley and Don Eddy participated in the National Tournament held in St. Louis. Ted placed fifth in the national contest. He added a first place award to his achievements by winning the American Legion Oratorical Contest.

Various speech students took part in other local contests. Bill Vobach won first place honors in the Northern Indiana District of Rotary International Convention after previously taking four preliminaries.

The varsity debate team, under the coaching of Mr. Arthur Erickson, ended the season with the title "Winners of the National Forensic League State Contest."

Debating the question of socialized medicine, the team went on to bring more laurels to Clark by winning 98 of 143 debates held during the season, and also by placing second in the Metropolitan Debate Union.

The four boys comprising the team were Joe Rueff and Bill Vobach, who upheld the negative side, and Paul Voreacos and Ted Wiley, supporters of the affirmative. Frank Hill was alternate.

In the state NFL tournament held in March the first team captured first-place laurels.

The teams were members of both the Calumet Debate League and Metropolitan Debate Union. Altogether they were in fifteen debate tournaments throughout the state during the season.

Demonstration debates were presented as a program for clubs. They spoke for the Lion's Club, the Whiting Woman's Club, the American Legion, and in an assembly.

STAGE PRODUCTION STAFF

All-around handy-men. This name can justly be applied to the GRC stage production staff. The boys and girls who put so much of their free time into this organization really deserve a great deal of credit.

They are always ready to be called upon by teachers, students, and organizations to do some helpful task such as run the movie projector, pulling curtains for their programs, setting up scenery, effecting colorful lighting, putting on make-up, and delivering properties.

This year's stage crew was led by Senior Bradley Bodney, who finished his second year of active participation in production work. He has been succeeded by Mickey Horvat, a young freshmen entering the field of stage duties.

Without this helpful organization it would be impossible to enjoy plays, movies, and other assemblies in our auditorium.

The members of the stage production staff can earn letters by putting in 120 hours work on either lighting, scenery or make-up.

SAFETY AND SERVICE CLUBS

The Patrol Club has turned in its usual splendid record of essential service, though unheralded by many for its work.

With Mr. Zevenhouse as its sponsor, the club consisted of 42 active members. Each boy in the club had assigned hours during which he performed his duty of safely guiding students across streets. Some members kept order among the fans during the football and baseball games.

As a reward for its hard work, the club journeyed to Chicago to see a baseball game. Although never given much publicity, the Service Club has proved itself an invaluable organization at Clark, for this club serves the students and the faculty at all times.

It has as its main duty the task of supervising the noon hour of pupils who bring their lunches in the elementary grades.

Under the able supervision of Miss Ellen Viney and Mr. Edwin Martin, who supervises the boys who are on hall patrol, the Service Club has become one of the most helpful organizations.

The Senior Band began another busy and successful year by marching at all home football games. Under the direction of Mr. Carlyle Snider, the 63 piece outfit kept up its reputation for a colorful performance.

The highlight of the winter season was the concert January 22. Dr. C. L. Kingsbury of Indiana University was the guest conductor. At the spring concert May 23, Nilo Hovey, former band director at Clark, led several numbers.

Two student concerts were presented, one at Clark and the other at Roosevelt High School for an exchange performance.

Fourteen soloists and seven ensembles received first-division ratings at the annual State Solo and Ensemble Contest at Whiting. Soloists were entered in the city contest also. The entire outfit played at the State Band Contest in South Bend.

The orchestra, under the baton of Mr. Darwin Eret, did much this year to promote music at Clark and throughout the community.

Probably its most outstanding achievement was the concert with the vocal groups, which was presented in December. This was the first time in the history of the school that these two organizations performed together.

The orchestra played exchange concerts at Whiting and Crown Point High Schools beside presenting an assembly program for the GRC student body.

For "The Double Door" and "the Clean-Up," senior and junior plays, respectively, the musicians provided between-act music. They also provided accompaniment for solo and chorus numbers in the operetta, "The Golden Trail," style show, and the Hammond City Music Festival.

Individual members of this organization worked extra hard. A small ensemble performed at school functions and events in the community. Three soloists received first-division ratings at the state contest. Several of the musicians attended Saturday night concerts of the Chicago Symphony with Mr. Eret, and the orchestra was a guest at a concert at John Marshall High School of Chicago.

Their activities were brought to a finish after playing for Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises for the Senior Class of 1947.

VOCAL MUSIC

A group of musically-minded students make a pretty picture as they sing several classical and popular selections for an all-school assembly.

Through unlimited co-operation the vocal music groups, under the direction of Miss Wilma Range, have brought more and varied musical programs to the people of the community as well as the students of Clark.

The vocalists presented a concert with the orchestra for the first time in the history of GRC, featuring a varied program of classical and popular selections. Following this, the classes participated in the annual Christmas program.

"The Golden Trail," a musical comedy, was given by the vocal department in March. It continued the fine reputation of such previous productions. This light operetta was set in southern California and took place during the early growth of America. The plot centered around "a stolen consignment of gold dust and the coveted Alvarado family jewels." The cast consisted of cowboys, bandits, dashing Spaniards, and gay señoritas.

The Double Sextet sang for a school assembly, for the elementary book fair, and provided music for a meeting of the Whiting Woman's Club. The Triple Trio sang for a city-wide meeting of the PTA in Hammond and for a meeting of the Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service.

Before Christmas vacation both the groups carolled at Minas' in Hammond and in the school halls. All groups of the Vocal Music Department participated in a Christmas assembly. The program consisted of a series of tableaux representing the first Christmas. It was directed by Miss Oza Cunningham and Miss Range, and it was also presented for the Parent-

Members of the vocal department have participated in the Music Festival at Hammond, the style show, the Thanksgiving assembly, and the Baccalaureate and Commencement Programs.

Included in their social activities were the following: the Girls' Choir entertained their friends at a supper-dance April 14, and the Vocal Music Department had a very enjoyable roller skating party at the Palace Roller Rink.

Cheerleaders

An integral part in keeping up the spirit of the Pioneers is the GRC cheerleaders. At all basketball and football games they may be seen leading the students in their cheering for the team.

Pep assemblies were held for the cheerleaders and the Clarkites to practice as a unit. New yells and clever antics to brighten the games were made up by them.

For the basketball season the cheerleaders wore new outfits. Their costumes were made up of blue fringed jackets and white skirts.

The fine peppy spirit of the cheerleaders has aided in livening the games and encouraged both players and fans. They helped decorate the gym for the C Club's dance and decorated and served at the athletic banquet.

The 1946-47 varsity cheerleaders were Joan Beckman, Sally Lou Creswell, Elaine Osborne, and Betty Jane Petkovich. Next years' squad consist of Sally Lou, Marilyn Brady, Pat Davidson, and Eloise Haugh.

A t h l e t i c s

Of all the activities in which Clark students participate, athletics hold more interest than any of the others. Every year more than half of the boys enrolled in GRC take part in at least one of the eight inter-scholastic sports sponsored by the Pioneers. The GRC program also plays an integral part in providing a sports program for athletically-interested girls.

All of these factors help build strong individuals both physically and mentally, ready to take their place as worthwhile citizens of tomorrow.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Halfback Ebbie Levitt, leading ground gainer and scorer, is helped off the field by Coach Arvo Antilla after receiving a slight injury.

Pioneer gridgers, after winning their first three starts, took a nosedive in the season's final five contests and ended up the campaign with a record of three victories, three losses, and two ties.

This record, however, does not tell the whole story, for only one game was lost by more than seven points—a 26-0 affair dished out by E.C. Roosevelt's state champions.

Highly under-rated at the season's start, the Pioneers went on to win three straight games before tasting defeat. Gary Emerson's over-confident Norsemen were the first foes to fall before the onslaught of the Antillamen, 7-6. Hammond Tech and E. C. Washington then met their Waterloo at the hands of the Clark squad, 26-0 and 6-0, respectively

GRC's forward wall, which averaged close to 185 pounds, proved itself one of the scrappiest lines in the state, and if it had not been hampered by injuries, Clark might have gone much farther than it did.

Standing: Coach Arvo Antilla, Gasenica, McCoy, Kender, Levitt
Kneeling: Franchimont, Krausky, Economou, Voreacos, Eggers, Tumidalsky, Foreman

All seven line regulars are lost through graduation. They are Mack Foreman and Prosper Franchimont, ends; Frank Krausky and Bernie Tumidalsky, tackles; Milan Manchak and Glenn Eggers, guards; and Paul Voreacos, center Krausky was voted most valuable player by his team-mates, and Eggers won the best mental attitude trophy.

The outlook for next year is one of both joy and gloom. Everett Levitt, Cliff Kender, Jim Smith, Jerry Bauer, and Ed Siska all have had considerable backfield experience. Only Norm Banas, Ted Economou, and Al Lorenzen, however, have shown promise in the line.

The 1946 Pioneer football squad was a fighting, determined aggregation—a team of which Clark rooters may well be proud.

Standing: Coach Emerson Aldrich, Joe Siska, Bauer, Domasica, Buksar

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Twelve wins and twelve losses.

The above record doesn't seem very impressive at first glance; yet many team and individual honors came to GRC during the 1946-47 cage season.

Regular season victories over such perennial powers as Thornton Fractional, Hammond Tech, Gary Froebel, and Harvey Thornton gave Clark the reputation that it could fight it out with the best in the region had to offer. In the sectional tourney, the Pioneers downed Griffith and Tech by lopsided scores before dropping a close decision to Hammond High's power-packed Wildcats.

The fact that the Pioneers could bounce back from a humiliating defeat and dish out as much as they had taken was shown when they rolled over Valparaiso, 68 to 37. Just four days before the boys suffered a devastating set-back at the hands of State-finalist E. C. Washington, 67-30.

Individual laurals must go to Captain George Peters and Prosper Franchimont. George copped the individual scoring record for a single game by tallying 24 points against Gary Tolleston, while Prosper fell just four markers short of the season record of 272 points held by George Buksar, class of '45.

Only three boys—Peters, Franchimont, and George Bobos leave the cage ranks via graduation, so everything points toward a stellar campaign for Coach Ed Shields and his squad next year.

Among those who will vie for starting positions on next year's squad will be Howard Usselman, Ralph Porter, Ed Langohr, Jerry Bauer, Norm Banas, and Mike Anel. All of these boys shared regular assignments this last year.

Coach Joe Franklin's Settlers had a very successful season. The Clark reserve squad finished their campaign with ten victories and four losses. Outstanding players included Dick French, Everett Levitt, Clifford Kender, and Loddie Labda.

THE RESERVES

A successful varsity team may well be forecast for the next few years by the showing of the Pioneer reserve squads, especially the Settlers. Coach Joe Franklin's boys annexed ten victories in 14 contests and showed depth as well as power. Coach Franklin used no set starting line-up but alternated about ten members of the squad throughout the season.

Though Coach Emerson Aldrich's Frosh-Soph and Freshman didn't enter the win column as many times as did the Settlers, they showed the team play so needed in future varsity tussles. Among the outstanding players were Sophomores Bryon McClure and Paul Wetnight and Freshman Anthony Brenkus.

TRACK

Although the won and lost record of the 1947 Pioneer track squad was not too impressive, several outstanding events occurred during the season of which it may be rightfully proud.

It was in a night meet that the Pioneers, coached by Joe Franklin, accomplished a feat which no other Clark squad in the past had been able to do, and that was defeat Gary Froebel. The Blue and White came through with flying colors to down the Blue Devils, 56 to 53.

Richard Blastick and Ralph Porter registered the most outstanding performances of the year. Senior Blastick set a new school record in the mile run, clicking off the distance in 4:40:3, while Porter, a junior, qualified for the state finals in the 200-yard low hurdles by placing second at the sectional meet in a school record-breaking time of 23.9 seconds.

Throughout the season the Blue and White won two of five duel engagements and were victorious in one of four triangular affairs.

Standing: Lourik (manager), Vladika, Zelenack, Vargo, Gronowski, Slingsby, Piotrowski, Langohr, Petkovich, Hadley (manager), Coach Henry Zevenhouse
Kneeling: Banas, Usselman, Gulvas, Siska, Figler, Kender, Do'ak, Foreman, Labda

BASEBALL

The Clark baseball squad, tutored by Coach Henry Zevenhouse, turned in a fairly successful season.

Joe Gulvas, one of the region's better pitchers, registered many fine performances and was an important factor in the team's gaining a .444 pre-conference average.

Such foes as Hammond High, Hammond Tech, Fenger of the Chicago City League, and Thornton fell before Pioneer practice-game scoring drives.

In conference play the Blue-and-White nine tangled with many regional aggregations.

Among them were E. C. Roosevelt, E. C. Washington, Horace Mann, Tolleston, Lew Wallace and Whiting.

The snappy infield play during the season was provided by Norm Banas, Mack Foreman, Cliff Kender, and Howard Usselman, while Outfielders Bill Figler, Loddie Labda, and Joe Siska did a fine job of keeping opponents to the minimum bases on outfield hits.

Prospects for next year appear pretty bright for the Clarksters, since regulars Banas, Kender, Labda, and Usselman will return.

CROSS COUNTRY - WRESTLING

Under the able direction of Coach Ed Shields, Clark's harriers won five of eight contests, losing only one of the six dual ruzzles in which they participated. They also placed eighth in the 19-school NIHSC meet. Mike Andel, Allen Doris, Fred Eberly, Eddie Langohr, and Ed Svitek, most consistent Pioneer performers, will see action again next year.

The Blue-and-White grapplers, coached by Mr. Arvo Antilla, won six while losing four meets. They captured third place in the annual NIHSC meet and gained eighth position in the state event. Veterans Ted Economou, James Fauth, Roy Isberg, Dan Krc, Ernest Palagyi, and Dale Schroeder will return to bolster next year's squad.

GRC's golf team, under the supervision of Mr. Max W. Beaty, failed to win a single meet while dropping three contests and tying one. In the 15 team NIHSC meet the linksmen placed tenth. Five members of the eight man team will return to strengthen next year's squad.

The Pioneer tennis squad, coached by Mr. Edwin Martin, ended their season with a record of no victories, five losses, and one tie. Next year's team, however, should provide strong competition for any foe, for only Everett Crippen and Bill Vobach will be lost via the graduation route.

The GRC girls, not to be outdone by the masculine sports around the school, participated vigorously in basketball, baseball, and volleyball.

Under the sponsorship and leadership of Miss Leota Kenzie, they held the second home-room volleyball tournament in the history of the school. This affair was won by Room 221, Miss Margaret Ide's home room.

Letters and pins were awarded to those girls who earned a required amount of points by active work in GAC sports.
